v.)	ORDER
)
THEORDORE HALL)

This matter comes before the Court on defendant's motion to withdraw a previously filed motion. [DE 43]. On February 18, 2015, Mr. Hall filed a motion for return of seized property [DE 38], to which the government responded [DE 41]. The Court then issued an order informing defendant that the relief he sought was that which would result from a motion under 28 U.S.C. § 2255 and instructing him to confirm or deny his intent to file a § 2255 within thirty days of April 2, 2015. [DE 42]. Defendant responded by asking the Court to allow him to withdraw the motion for return of seized properly. For good cause shown, defendant's motion to withdraw [DE 43] is GRANTED.

Accordingly, defendant's motion for return of seized property [DE 38] is DISMISSED WITHOUT PREJUDICE. Should petitioner wish to file a motion pursuant to § 2255 in the future, he should do so on the appropriate forms which are available from the Clerk.

SO ORDERED, this the 20 day of April, 2015.
